

Upgrading the Firmware of the NB5PLUS4/W

1.) Go to the One page setup (i.e. 192.168.1.1). Enter the username 'admin' and password 'admin' then click the 'Advanced Settings' located at the bottom left hand side.

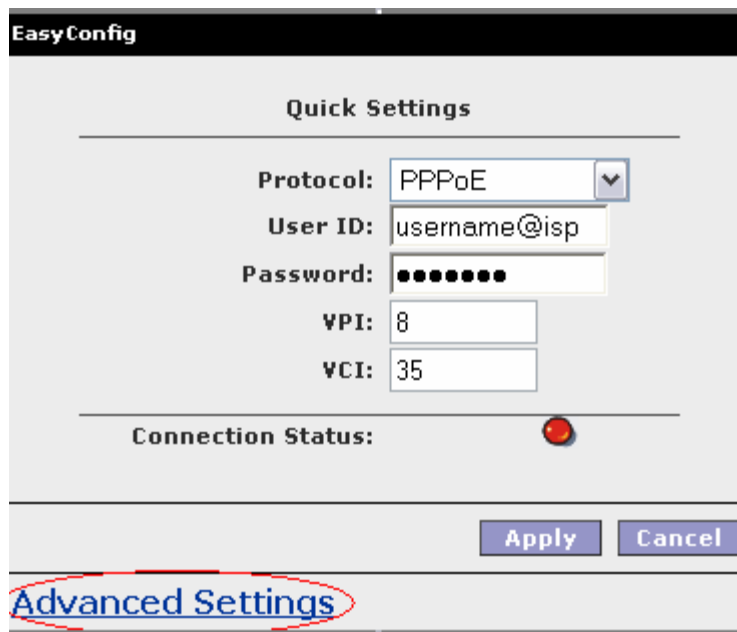

Please Log In to continue.

Log In

Username: admin

Password: ●●●●●●

Log In

EasyConfig

Quick Settings

Protocol: PPPoE

User ID: username@isp

Password: ●●●●●●

VPI: 8

VCI: 35

Connection Status: ●

Apply Cancel

Advanced Settings

2.) Click the 'Tools' Tab

SHARE THE EXPERIENCE

NetComm®	HOME	SETUP	ADVANCED	WIRELESS	TOOLS	STATUS	EASYCONFIG	HELP
System Commands	Tools
Remote Log	The Tools section allows you to save the configuration, restart the gateway, update the gateway, setup user and remote log information and run Ping and Modem tests.
User Management
Update Gateway	System Commands Save the current configuration, Restart the gateway

3.) Click the 'Update Gateway' on the left hand Menu. Then specify the location of the firmware by selecting the 'Browse' button. Then select the Update Gateway button.

NetComm®	HOME	SETUP	ADVANCED	WIRELESS	TOOLS	STATUS	EASYCONFIG	HELP
System Commands	Update Gateway
Remote Log	To update your gateway firmware, choose an updated firmware image or configuration file in and then click the Update Gateway button. Additionally, you may download your configuration system by clicking Get Configuration.
User Management
Update Gateway	Select a File: <input type="text"/> Browse... (Max file size 3.5 MB) Firmware Image can be the combined single image with or without digital signature. Update Gateway The system will be restarted automatically, after the Filesystem image is successfully updated. You will need to reconnect again to configure your setup. Get Configuration The system will give the configuration file only if it was earlier saved by pressing "SaveAll" in System Command Menu.
Ping Test
Modem Test
Log Out

**Please wait approximately 10 minutes for the NB5plus4/W to reboot. You may then log back into the NB5Plus4/W to configure.