COMPANY ANNOUNCEMENT

5 October 2010

NETCOMM TO SUPPLY MOBILE BROADBAND GATEWAY TO TELECOM NEW ZEALAND

NetComm Limited (ASX: NTC) is pleased to announce the upcoming supply of its mobile broadband gateway to Telecom New Zealand (NZ:TEL) – New Zealand's largest telecommunications service provider (by revenue).

This agreement reflects NetComm's continued development of solid partnerships with international providers of mobile broadband technologies.

NetComm managing director, David Stewart welcomes the partnership with Telecom New Zealand.

"This partnership is significant in that it will introduce the fastest 3G gateway speeds to homes and businesses across New Zealand. The agreement will help to secure Telecom New Zealand's place at the forefront of 3G technological innovation by highlighting the coverage and speed advantages of the XT network."

Mobile operators currently deploying NetComm broadband gateway products include:

- Telstra Corporation Limited (Australia)
- Etisalat (UAE)
- Rogers Communications (Canada)
- TELUS Corporation (Canada)
- Telecom NZ (New Zealand)
- Saudi Telecom Company
